Liverpool–Chester–Liverpool – Terms and Conditions

The terms and conditions below apply to all entrants participating in the Liverpool– Chester–Liverpool Bike Ride as organised by Pennine Events. By registering for the Liverpool Chester Liverpool bike ride you will be required to accept the terms and conditions on offer.

1. Participants must acknowledge that this event is not a race.
2. When cycling on the highway participants acknowledge this is potentially hazardous. Participants should be in a reasonable state of health and by registering they are confirming that they are in good health and are capable of completing the event.
3. The event organisers cannot be held responsible for personal accident, injury, loss or damage occurred during the event.
4. Any costs incurred as a result of participant rescue or injury are to be covered by the participant and not Pennine Events.
5. Pennine Events do not accept responsibility for the actions of participants.
6. Participants must wear the event number provided at all times during the event.
7. Participants must follow the instruction of event staff, stewards and signage at all times.
8. Event rules and regulations will be stated within the event information booklet as created by Pennine Events – these must be followed at all times.
9. All sales are final, refunds are not available.
10. Participants can transfer between Liverpool Chester Liverpool routes. Additional costs may occur depending on route options.
11. Participants cannot change the named rider once registered.
12. Registration can only be completed by a person aged 18yrs or over.
13. Participants taking part in the Challenge rides, must be 18yrs or over.
14. Participants under the age of 18yrs old MUST be accompanied by a responsible person over the age of 18yrs old. Pennine Events reserve the right to request photo identification and/or proof of age from participants at any point. Failure to comply may result in being withdrawn from the event.
15. Participants accept the age entry criteria as detailed below and as such Pennine Events do not accept responsibility for any persons that fall outside of the categories detailed.
16. All participants must wear appropriate safety equipment when taking part. It is highly recommended that a helmet must be worn at all times when cycling.
17. Participants must adhere to the rules of the event at all times.
18. Participants must follow the Highway Code when on public roads and pathways. For open road events all traffic signals and road signs must be obeyed.

- 19. Participants must be considerate to all other participants and non-participants at all times.
- 20. For cycling, please ensure that you ride in single file and no more than two abreast where necessary.
- 21. All route signage must be followed, any participant not following the route is therefore outside of the event and not the responsibility of the event organisers. Pennine Events agree to ensure that all routes are adequately signed.
- 22. Pennine Events reserve the right to make changes and adjustments to any route at any point prior to the event day. All changes will be publicised through the event website and social media. Participants will not be entitled to a refund in this situation, instead should this be requested they will be offered the chance to change routes instead
- 23. Pennine Events promises to do all in their power to ensure that all routes are of the advertised distance, although all route distances advertised are estimates.
- 24. Pennine Events are entitled to make adjustments to the routes on the event day in an emergency situation without giving prior notice to participants.
- 25. Event organisers will close the event service areas and finish at a specified time, any participant who has not reached the service areas or returned to the event finish by this set time is no longer the responsibility of Pennine Events. Participants do not need to inform event organisers if they are not participating or completing the event.
- 26. Any lost equipment/property will be returned to the Pennine Events office and can be collected at a requested time. Pennine Events are not responsible for any damage incurred while in possession of lost property.
- 27. It is advised that participants should take out their own insurance to cover themselves for all aspects of the event.
- 28. Each participant agrees to assign and grant the right and permission for Pennine Events to use and publish any photographs, film, video and/or sound recordings of the participant on any Pennine Events activity. The participant hereby releases Pennine Events from any and all liability from such use and promotion. The participant authorises the reproduction, sale, copyright, exhibit, and broadcast, electronic storage and/or distribution of said photographs, film, video tapes, electronic representations and/or sound recordings without limitation at the discretion of Pennine Events. The participant specifically waives any right to any compensation they may have for appearing in any of the photographs, film, video and/or sound recordings of the participant at a Pennine Events event.
- 29. Pennine Events are only liable for the provision of the event/service as entered. Pennine Events cannot be held liable for any other expenses, damages, loss or injury incurred as a result of entering, training for, attending and/or participating in the event. Should the event be cancelled Pennine Events' liability is limited to the refund of event entry fee, as specified above, and Pennine Events accept no liability for any expenses you may have incurred.
- 30. Except in respect of death or personal injury caused by our negligence, Pennine Events shall not be liable to you by reason of any representation (unless fraudulent), or any implied warranty, condition or other term, or any duty at common law or under the express terms of the Contract, for any indirect, special or consequential loss or damage (whether for loss of profit or otherwise), costs, expenses or other claims for compensation whatsoever (whether caused by our negligence or our employees, agents or otherwise) which arise out of or in connection with the supply of the Goods or their use or resale by you, and Pennine Events' entire liability under or in connection with the Contract shall not exceed the price of the Goods, except as expressly provided in these Conditions.
